1. ABOUT THE DEPARTMENT

The English department was established as a general department when Sefa College of Arts and Science first opened its doors in 2009 with the intention of providing a higher education in English Language and Literature that was based on moral principles. A Masters Programme in English Language and Literature was added in 2018, upgrading to postgraduate department. A variety of teaching and learning resources, including Language Lab facility and ICT enabled classrooms are available in the department, which helps to foster a positive learning environment and guarantee an engaging educational experience. We provide intensive mentoring to our students both in academic and extra-curricular activities. Our program has also been providing Gender Studies, Writing for the Media, Translations in world classics etc. The department aims to educate the students about the contemporary forms of culture through English literature.

2. VISION AND MISSION

VISION

“The best that has been thought and taught.”

We are focusing on quality education. We seek to foster knowledge and love of literature and of language in our students and to help them grow holistically.

MISSION

- To facilitate students' acquisition of improved English consumption skills and to enhance the integration of soft skills as envisioned in the curriculum. The English Department strengthens the language skills of students through our ventures “WINSPIRATION” & “EL’ CLIQUE”.
- To prepare them for careers and higher education through proper guidance in competitive examinations.

5. DEPARTMENT ANTI RAGGING SQUAD

The Anti-Ragging Squad has been diligently monitoring and ensuring a safe environment within our department. Regular patrols and awareness campaigns have been conducted to prevent any instances of ragging. We remain committed to upholding a zero-tolerance policy towards ragging activities.

The cell comprises of student representative from all the classes of the department and staff members from the department.

On receiving complaints, the following departmental procedure is followed:

1. Department council is convened to discuss the issue.
2. The council allocates staff to form an enquiry committee headed by a deputed chairperson.
3. The enquiry committee is responsible for investigating the incident and reporting the incident to the principal. They are to also report their findings.
4. On the basis of the report presented by the enquiry committee, the principal and anti-ragging cell takes the decision regarding the punishments meted out to students found guilty of ragging on and off campus.
5. The tutor of the student, found guilty of ragging, records the decision of the council in the student profile.

6. DEPARTMENT SENATOR SYSTEM

The PG Department of English Language and Literature operates a robust Senator System, comprising of elected senators from all classes under the department. The senators for the academic year 2023-24 are:

UG First Year: Muhammed Riyas, Fathima Shafna

UG Second Year: Muhammed Adil, Anshida

UG Third Year: Bahasad Ali, Anjali

PG First Year: Ashfak, Harsha

PG Second Year: Abhin Krishna, Rahna

Senators play a crucial role in fostering communication and addressing student concerns within the department.

8. MENTOR MENTEE SYSTEM

Mentor-Mentee System at the PG Department of English Language and Literature fosters academic and personal growth. Mentors provide guidance and support to mentees throughout their academic journey, ensuring a smooth transition and addressing any challenges they may face. Faculty members are assigned a minimum of 20 mentees depending on the class strength. Mentors hold two monthly meetings with the mentees in order to foster a stronger bond with students, the minutes of which are then recorded.

Mentor-Mentee Allocation for the academic year:

UG First Year Mentors : Ms. Saikrishna, Ms. Diyanath

UG Second Year Mentors: Ms. Nishana KP, Ms Shafeeda JasminK A, MS Ayisha
Nadiya

UG Third Year Mentors : Ms Majida PT, Ms Vismaya VM

PG First Year Mentor : Ms. Aiswarya P P

PG Second Year Mentor : Mr. Muhammed Shameem. P

9. TUTOR MEETING

The Tutor Meetings at the PG Department of English Language and Literature serve as vital platforms for academic collaboration and support. These meetings are held monthly, totaling ten sessions per academic year. The primary objectives include reviewing student progress, discussing curriculum updates, sharing best teaching practices, and addressing any challenges encountered in the teaching-learning process. Each meeting typically lasts for an hour and is scheduled at a convenient time to accommodate all tutors. The minutes of meeting is then recorded.

This structured approach ensures that tutors are well-equipped to provide effective guidance and support to students throughout the academic term. The meetings also facilitate continuous improvement in teaching methodologies and foster a cohesive academic environment within the department.

21. PTA Meeting

The Parent-Teacher Association (PTA) of the PG Department of English Language and Literature plays a crucial role in fostering a collaborative environment between parents, teachers, and students. With two meetings conducted annually, the PTA ensures active participation and engagement in the academic and extracurricular progress of the students.

The PTA meetings are strategically scheduled at the beginning and end of each academic year. These meetings serve as a platform for discussing important decisions, reviewing the academic curriculum, and addressing any concerns raised by parents or teachers.

In the first year, the PTA executives were Mr. Ashraf and Mrs. Bushara. Their leadership was instrumental in establishing clear communication channels between parents and the department, ensuring that parents were well-informed about their children's academic progress and departmental activities.

During the second year, the executive roles were taken over by Mr. Abdul Azeez and Mrs. Abida. Their tenure saw significant discussions on improving the infrastructure of the department and introducing new student support services. Their efforts resulted in the implementation of additional academic resources and the organization of workshops aimed at enhancing student skills.

In the third year, Mr. Sudhakaran and Ms. Sajitha took on the executive roles. Under their guidance, the PTA focused on career guidance and placement support for the graduating students. They organized several career counseling sessions and collaborated with industry professionals to provide insights into various career paths.

Throughout these meetings, major discussions included the enhancement of teaching methodologies, the introduction of new courses, and the organization of cultural and literary events. The PTA also played a vital role in addressing any grievances and ensuring that the department remained a supportive and nurturing environment for all students.

The PTA's active involvement and the dedication of its executives have significantly contributed to the continuous improvement of the department, ensuring that it remains responsive to the needs of its students and parents.

25. Alumni

The Alumni of the PG Department of English Language and Literature have been an integral part of its growth and success. Their contributions extend beyond academic excellence, deeply enriching the cultural and intellectual fabric of the department. The batch of 2016-2019, in particular, stands out for their significant engagement and support.

Regular meetups, often bi-annually, have been a cornerstone of the alumni activities. These gatherings provide a platform for past students to reconnect, share their experiences, and offer invaluable feedback that helps in shaping the future of the department. Their suggestions have often led to the introduction of new courses, improved teaching methodologies, and enhanced student support services.

One of the notable contributions from the 2016-2019 alumni batch is the donation of a clock to the department, symbolizing their enduring bond and commitment to its continuous progress. This clock serves as a daily reminder of the lasting impact that alumni can have.

SAY IT (Safa Alumni Youth Inspirational Talk) program is another remarkable initiative by the alumni. This program aims to inspire current students by inviting successful alumni to share their journeys, challenges, and achievements. The talks by Mr. Ashraf an esteemed member of the first UG Batch (2009-2012) of the Department and Mrs. Najrana, an esteemed member of the 2016-2019 batch, have been pivotal in this program. The sessions have been particularly motivating, offering practical advice and inspiration to aspiring students.

Overall, the alumni of the PG Department of English Language and Literature remain a vital part of its community, contributing through mentorship, feedback, and tangible gifts that enhance the department's environment and academic rigor. Their ongoing involvement ensures that the department not only maintains its standards of excellence but also continually evolves to meet new challenges.

27. Conclusion

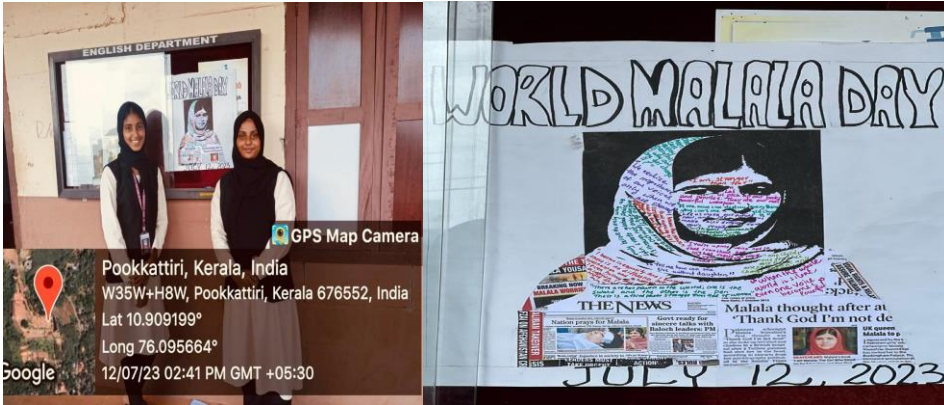

The PG department of English Language and Literature has had a highly productive and impactful year in 2023-2024 . Through various programs focused on cross cutting issues such as gender, human values, professional ethics and environment & sustainability , we have successfully enriched the academic and social experience of our students and faculty. These initiatives have not only fostered a deeper understanding of these critical issues but also cultivated a more inclusive. Ethical and environmentally conscious community. We look forward to continuing this tradition of excellence and innovation in the coming years, ensuring our department remains a leader in addressing the pressing challenges of our time.
